

The National Folk Festival - a brief history

The 'National', as it is affectionately known, has come to be seen as a national treasure, being one of the longest-running events of its kind in Australia. The Festival began in Victoria in 1967 as the Port Philip District Folk Music Festival. After subsequently being presented in a different State or Territory each year the National settled in Canberra in 1993 and has become firmly established in the Nation's Capital, along with Canberra's other unique cultural attractions.

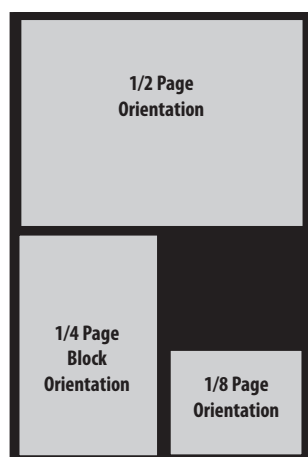

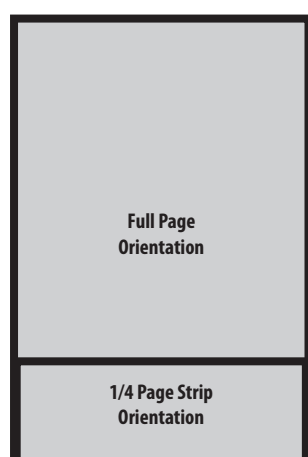

The Festival's importance as a National Capital Attraction has been acknowledged by winning the Festivals and Events category in Canberra and Capital Region Tourism Awards, 2013, 2014 and 2015. The National Folk Festival also took out the Australian Tourism Bronze Award in both 2014 & 2015.

Advertising Opportunities

Approximately 10,000 full colour programs are printed and issued free to season ticket holders who travel from all parts of Australia to attend the event with a high percentage coming from the ACT and the eastern States. Programs are also sold to day ticket holders at $5.00 each and $1.00 from the sale of every program is donated to Greening Australia. Our Program guide is the information source for all things relating to the Festival. Inside it you'll find artist biographies and schedules, festival-related articles, site maps, information on market stalls and where to eat and drink, a full guide to all events and, the handy and ever popular program grid featuring a double page lineup of acts for each day. Over the years our Festival program has become a coveted survival must have and is also a treasured souvenir that showcases the many wonderful experiences that the National offers its festival-goers each year. This is a perfect way to advertise your business or organisation to a diverse, committed and passionate audience.
