

National Folk Festival

29 MARCH - 2 APRIL, 2018
EXHIBITION PARK, CANBERRA

Media Release

October 2017

National Folk Festival: The Perfect Place for Kids and Families at Easter

Looking for a huge range of great activities in one place for the whole family over Easter?

Combine fun family activities with live music and much, much more at Canberra's award-winning National Folk Festival, a family-friendly, five-day celebration of music, song, dance, circus, spoken word and film.

With more than 200 international and national acts in a village setting, complete with roving entertainers, street circus, stages of all sizes, a special 'KidzFest' zone, market stalls, food vans, shopping precincts, cafes, themed bars and arts and craft activities, there's plenty for everyone to do. Come for the whole Festival, or just for a great day out—there's a choice of season passes or one-day tickets. Best of all, children under 7 accompanied by an adult are free, and Easter Monday is Family Day, when accompanied children under 15 years are free!

Offering 'five days in a perfect world', the 52nd National Folk Festival runs throughout Easter, 29 March —2 April 2018 at Exhibition Park, Canberra. Tickets on sale now (entry ticket provides access to all stages and areas).

- What: National Folk Festival
- When: 29 March to 2 April 2018
- Where: Exhibition Park, corner Flemington Road and Northbourne Avenue, Mitchell, ACT
- Featuring: More than 200 international and national acts, workshops, master classes, parades, roving entertainment, food and market stalls in an idyllic village environment

Further information: folkfestival.org.au t: (02) 6262 4792 e: info@folkfestival.org.au